ROBBINSVILLE, NJ (Sept. 5, 2024) – Westfield resident Sandra Mamary has been named an NJSIAA assistant director.

In her new role, Mamary will oversee boys' and girls' tennis; field hockey; boys' and girls' swimming and diving; and girls' lacrosse. The longtime athletic director of Westfield High School, she has more than three decades of experience as an educator and, since 2019, has held various volunteer positions with the NJSIAA. Mamary earned a bachelor's degree from East Stroudsburg University and holds a master's degree from Kean University.

"Sandy has been a part of two committees within the NJSIAA since 2019, and we're excited for her to have a bigger role on our team," says Colleen Maguire, NJSIAA executive director. "As the former supervisor of athletics for Westfield Public Schools, she has 14 years of experience supervising 32 sports programs. I'm confident she'll do an excellent job in this position."

Mamary holds seats on a variety of scholastic athletics groups, including the NJSIAA/NJSCA Hall of Fame Committee, the NJSIAA Boys/Girls Tennis Committee, the NJSIAA Flag Football Committee, the Union County Interscholastic Athletic Conference, and the Union County Conference.
